

2010 Bristol Rhythm and Roots Reunion Vendor Rules

1. Vendor fees are nonrefundable.
2. Spaces can not be reassigned after you have arrived at the festival.
3. Vendors must be set up on Friday, September 17 at the prescribed time. Only in cases of emergency will you be allowed to set up late or leave early.
4. Campers or supply trucks are not allowed to park on State Street. Vendor parking is provided. ALL vendor vehicles are to be off State Street by 3:00 pm Friday, September 17.
5. No generators, loud horns, speakers, microphones, yelling, or other noises that might offend other vendors around your location or that would interfere with performers are allowed. Jamming with acoustic instruments is permitted on sidewalks and in doorways.
6. All signs, banners, tables, or displays must be confined within your assigned space. This is strictly enforced by the Fire Marshal as well as festival staff.
7. Craft Vendors are not allowed to sell any site -prepared food items.
8. Craft Vendors can not sell any type of soft drink. This includes coffee, lemonade, sports drinks, bottled water and sodas. Any craft vendor caught selling soft drinks will be asked to leave the festival immediately.
9. Food vendors may only sell soft drinks that are purchased from Bristol Rhythm and Roots Reunion. DO NOT BRING SOFT DRINKS TO THE FESTIVAL. The selling of soft drinks is a fundraiser through the festival.
10. Ice is to be purchased from Bristol Rhythm and Roots Reunion.
11. Food Vendors may not sell hot dogs. This is a fundraiser for the festival.
12. Food Vendors must display their menus and prices in a manner that is easily read by their customers.
13. Food Vendors are only permitted to sell items listed on their application.
14. Food Vendors are required to accept two coupons per day from BRRR. This is part of your space fee.
15. All vendors will be supplied with a maximum of six (6) vendor passes. These passes must be shared and passed among workers if you are rotating help in and out of your space. No extra vendor passes will be distributed.